

Toronto International Summit on Leadership Education for Physicians

HALIFAX. OCTOBER 16. 2018

Join us for TISLEP, The Toronto International Summit on Leadership Education for Physicians, as we celebrate our 5th year on October 16th, 2018 in Halifax as a pre-ICRE* event. This year's theme is 'Charting a new course: Culture change and healthcare leadership'.

This exciting day of knowledge exchange and learning will welcome thought leaders, educators, patients, learners, faculty and other stakeholders from around the world to continue to probe the complexities of healthcare leadership education in the era of competency-based medical education.

Our keynote speaker, Dr. Mark Fleming, CN Professor of Safety Culture and Professor of Psychology at Saint Mary's University in Halifax will share his expertise on the topic of 'A leader's guide to organizational culture: Creating and managing change'.

TISLEP 2018 is aligned with this year's ICRE theme:
'The Learning Environment and Residency Education: The Evolution of Training'.

This Summit is hosted by the University of Toronto and the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. All those interested in attending may register for TISLEP when registering for ICRE. You can also register for this event alone.
